“ As a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, I will miss seeing Sharon sitting towards the front on the left side of the sanctuary. She always clapped for the choir because she so enjoyed the music. She also beamed with pride sharing the news of the birth of her first grandchild. I know another is on the way. Sharon's love of family continues. My sympathy to you as you mourn her passing, and my prayers of comfort to you all at this time. Sharon now knows the truth found in heaven. - Marla Fabian
