“ I am so saddened to hear about Sheila, Chantelle, Billy and his mother. I worked with Sheila at Belk in Myrtle Square Mall in the 1990's. She was kind and friendly and committed to her family. On occassions, Billy or Chantelle would come up and visit her or take her to lunch. I remember Billy's sense of humor and how proud Sheila was when Chantelle got her first teaching job. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. With Deepest Sympathy, Christine Epps###imported-begin###Christine Epps###imported-end##

“ I worked with Sheila in the 1980's until 1995 at Belk. She was kind, hard working, and a pleasure to see every day. I was aware of her close and loving relationship with her daughter, and remember when her first grandson arrived. I recall her family visiting her office on occasion at Belk. She will be missed, as well as your Grandmother, Billy and Chantelle. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sincerely, Pam Coggin, Myrtle Beach###imported-begin###Pam Coggin###imported-end##
