“ Shelia was and still is a wonderful person to know. Though Her body remains still, yet again, she will arise on that day The Lord returns, to live forever more. Be not sad, She lives in Heaven running, jumping and playing like a little girl would. Her heart remains on her family and others watching all of us and knowing that our Father-God watches us all, as a Father watches his own. To Her family, think of yourselves blessed to have known such a Lady as Shelia.##imported-begin##Richard Joslin##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with you Ms. Martin, Lisa, April, Jessie, Christopher, and Samantha. I know you will miss her greatly. Shelia became a dear friend of mine who taught me a lot about life back during our school bus driving days. Shelia always said I was her angel. I think God introduced us both for a great reason to better the both of us. Shelia gave more to me, than I ever gave to her. Jessie, Christopher, and Samantha we Ms. Sherri, Paul, Crystal, Zechary, and Samantha think of you all often. Hoping all is okay with you. You will be okay, you have family who care about you a lot. Always remember God and to pray, for that is what your Grandma would want. She loved you with all her heart and soul. I know this! I made her a promise to watch over you kids for her. I WILL keep this promise to her. God's blessings to you all. I will never be able to pass a racoon or a chicken and not think of Shelia. She had the greatest childhood stories. Then there is a doctor's appointment with good old Mr. Green. I will miss her and never forget her. God's Blessing to all of you who had the chance to know Shelia.##imported-begin##Sherri Daley##imported-end##
