“ Sheri was very special to me. She was most definitely one of a kind! She had a way with me like nobody else that I know. She could calmly teach me how to live a better life without me getting mad like I sometimes do when other people try to do that. She had so much grace and hope and never complained, She was so beautiful on the inside and out and loved her children with all of her heart. I loved her and she loved me unconditionally and that is hard to find in a friend but I found that in Sheri. I know she suffered enough and is a angle now but selfishly I wish I could have her back here but healthy and take that shopping trip tp Charelston she promised me and do all kind of other fun stuff together. I miss her hugs and knowing I can call her and that feeling I get when she is around that everything is going to be ok. I hope to see her again. I don't doubt that she is pain free and healthy and drinking her some coffee!! I still pray for Elli, Amy and Chris everyday! I know that only time can heal this and I feel truly blessed to have had Sheri in my life!

“ I met Sheri the same time my mom did 12 years ago in jan of 1999. Sheri was good to me and my siblings brian anthony and hannah. If we needed help or if we wanted to talk to someone we knew that we could count on her to listen to us even tho we arent family. She would come to all of our birthdays and i remember when we were younger one halloween we all went to a huanted house and we all ran out screamin and my mom actually peed her pants laughing at it. Sheri will be missed greatly and if she could come back i believe we would all spend more time with her. Chris Amy and Elli i am sorry that you have lost such an important part of your lives i am praying for you.

“ Sheri and I met in Jan of 1999. We shared a living space together for about a month, during that time, we laughed, cried, and prayed like i had never before done...Believe it or not, she was very shy and would barely talk to anyone in that house but me...it was odd, our personalities were complete opposite, but we connected strongly right away...We raised our kids together, watched each other get married, went on trips and just loved each other...I, regrettfully have not been there for her through these last years of pain and illness. She would want me to learn from this and do things differently...I will miss her terribly and I will love her always. She was the Superstar, she just didnt know it alot of the time...

I love you sheri, chris, amy, and elli and will continue to pray.. I consider myself a very blessed person that God placed their family in my life. Rest peacefully sheri...

“ Dear Family:

I am writing to extend my sympathy to you on your recent loss.

Would it not be a wonderful thing to see our loved ones free of all sickness and pain, alive here on the earth? “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it.” (Isaiah 25:8)

The Bible assures us that this will indeed take place. The scripture found at John 5:28,29 assures us of that hope: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out ...” John 11:25 – “Jesus said to her: ‘I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.’”

We can be confident that the Grand Creator who is not capable of telling a lie will make this a reality very soon (Titus 1:2); Revelations 21:4,5: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. And the One seated on the throne said, ‘Look! I am making all things new.’ Also, he says, ‘Write, because these words are faithful and true.’”

May the aforementioned scriptures be of some comfort to you as you go through this difficult time.

“ I remember Sheri has being one of the most compassionate, loving and beautiful people in this world. She was apart of mine and my family's life for so long and even after months without seeing eachother she would still send me messages on facebook saying how she loved me and was always there for me. She was such an amazing, brave woman. Her and Amy and Elli were apart of my family for so long and always will be. She was so goofy and entertaining! She could always make me laugh, and make me feel better. She truley cared. I still can't believe she has left this world. I will never forget us dressing up like tribal people and rain dancing in the living room, and i will never forget her beautiful smile and strong hugs. You will always be loved and miss Sheri, thanks for being you.

Sheri made an impact in my life and those around her. She helped me learn to laugh and she was there when i cried. She encouraged me when I was down and loved me with her strong hugs. She was one of my first friends in 1998. I admired her so much, she never looked at life as if it was dark. She always saw the light in everything around her. She was a great mom, wife, and friend. She took time out of her everyday life to be there for someone. She was the sweetest and kindest soul that ive ever met. I am going to miss her. I want to tell the family that i will be praying for you everyday. God loves you and he has his arms of love around you.

“Sheri and her husband Chris were two of the first people to accept me into their circle when i arrived in Myrtle Beach in 2008. No matter how much Sheri may have been suffering on any given day, she never complained about her pain. She gave so much of herself and never let her illness drag her too far down. She showed faith, conviction and courage in the face of so much adversity. She walked with true grace.

“I have had the privelege of being Sheri's neighbor for the past 5 years. I have a distinct memory of the first summer that we moved into our new home: I was mowing the lawn on a hot summer day(Probably too hot to be mowing the lawn!) and Sheri despite the fact that she did not know me yet, graciously brought me a glass of cold ice water and told me to be careful in the heat. That glass of ice water I will never forget- what a kind and caring spirit she had.I don't think that I can recall a time when I saw her and she was not smiling. May she rest in peace and watch over her beautiful family.

“ I was never very close to Sheri, but I remember her being someone that stood out to me and always had a beautiful way of saying things, that was soft-spoken and so kind to everyone around her. I admired her strength and perseverance through all of her health problems, as well as her husband's dedication and love. She always kept a smile on her face and was full of gratitude despite life's circumstances. After seeing how much heartache everyone around me is experiencing since her passing, I know she must have been a one-in-a-million woman and was loved and appreciated very, very much. -Rhyan

“ I was close with her daughter, Elli and I used to spend a lot of time over there with Elli and her mom. I remember two summers ago when I spent a weekend with them at their beach house and I really got to know Mrs. Sheri. She was such a wonderful and strong lady. I admire her for all she has dealt with. She is now at peace and can watch down on her beautiful daughters as they grow up to be beautiful young ladies. -Alicia
