“ Sherry, are the streets in heaven paved in gold, are the birds singing? I pray that our Lord holds your family and friends in the palm of his hands as he heals our hearts due to missing you. My brother's 58th birthday was on April 5th. Please give him a hug for me and let him know that for his birthday a person in need is wearing new shoes today.##imported-begin##Peggy McGill##imported-end##

“ Ms. Sherry was a wonderful person who helped have and loved you. I wish I could have said good bye. She was a wonderful teachers aid and I enjoyed learning from her. She and the class members would laugh, play, and do our work. Most of all she is in a good place and doesn't have to suffer the pain. Ms. Sherry I love you and hope to see you one day.
