“ Sheyenne, Daddy loves you so very much. I miss you so much, I can't even begin to tell you how much I wish I could take your place. You are my everything. I really just don't know how things will ever be the same without you and all your funny faces or you mocking me. You made me happy when I thought I couldn't be happy. I know you couldn't talk alot yet, but trust me baby you said so much. I promise you, I will never forget the day I watched you enter this world or the day I watched you leave it or any day in between it. I know you are up there looking down, not wanting me to hurt, but I can't help it. I promise to try and stay strong for you and I promise to always be there for your Momma and Grandma. I am not sure why God gave you to us, just to take you away from us, one year later. I am sure he has a plan though, I think! Regardless look over us all as we try to understand what happened and grieve. I promise we will see eachother soon baby. I am sorry for everything you went through Friday night and sorry that I wasn't there fastest enough to let you know how much love my heart has for you, before your illness took completly over. I will never forgive myself for that. May god be with you till I get there too....I love you Booger Butt...I love you Pumkin....I love you Shey....I love you baby! I wish I could have had just one last night with you....never forget I love you so very much. If you can give your mom and me strenghth to get through this time. Daddy loves you and will miss you forever.##imported-begin##Ronny SheppardDaddy##imported-end##
