

Shirley Lotterer

September 9, 1935 - December 13, 2015

Mrs. Shirley Marie Riley Lotterer 80, of Conway died on Sunday at Grand Strand Medical Center. She was the beloved wife of George Lotterer with whom she shared more than 57 years of marriage. Born in Chestertown MD, daughter of the late Henry D. and Bertha C. (Bartz) Riley, she attended local schools. Mrs. Lotterer had worked as a payroll specialist in the data entry field. In her spare time she loved to sew and crochet and was a member of the needlepoint club at Christ the Servant Lutheran Church. Although she will be remembered for being an exceptional cook, nothing gave her more enjoyment than spending time with her family. In addition to her husband she is the mother of David G. Lotterer and his companion Chris of Charleston, Thomas A. Lotterer and his wife Jocie of Windsor PA, and Sandra M. Porter and her husband Kenneth of San Antonio TX. Sister of Henrietta Riley of Baltimore MD, and the late Mildred Benson and Virginia Whitaker. Loving grandmother of 5 grandchildren. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to visit on Wednesday December 16, at the Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway 4-6 pm. Burial at a later date in MD. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Shirley's name may be sent to the American Lung Association, 2030 North Church Place, Spartanburg, SC 29303

Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Shannon - December 14, 2015 at 09:59 PM