“ I haven't seen Skylar in a very long time. I remember her and her brother. Mr and my brother went to church with them when we were kids and her mom Kim Byrd was my music teacher at Kingston. I'm so sorry she passed. She left so soon. We may have lost contact but I never forgot about her. Life is unfair. My condolences to her family.

“ Skylar and I had classes together in our Master of Social Work program. Her radiant smile and laugh are something I will remember always about her. We bonded over our love for older adults and she taught me so much! I can't believe she is gone, but I know she is still smiling, probably bigger than ever.

Sweet Skylar, I will never forget you. The profession of Social Work, your cohort, friends and family are suffering a tremendous loss, but we are also better having known you. Fly high, sweet lady. May we all be half the kind soul you were.

Much love, and hope for peace and comfort for loved ones at this time.

“ To all of Skylar’s loved ones, family and friends,

I didn’t know Skylar all that well during our time together at the University of South Carolina, aside from having a class or two with her. What I absolutely know without a doubt is that she had an infectious smile and energy about her while studying social work. Those qualities I surely will never forget. Please know that my heart and prayers are with everyone grieving her loss.
