“ On a rainy day my brother in arms shared his time in Korea. It was a cold day he said, much like this one. Been there on that hill about two weeks. pushed back three times. gained them back each time. Supplies low. Plenty of C-Rats but clean water not so much, The water cooled machine gun required clean water, no sand. Nite fell, got sooo cold. In the dark you could hear then coming, gun flash quickly lay down fire on that spot. ever thing gets quite. About 2 AM ran out of water in his gun. Passed the can and got the guys to pee in it. (he laughs) It worked. We talked for hours. He never mentioned the Bronze Star. I'll miss him.
