“ I had just talked to Sonja Saturday when I called to let her know I was thinking of her.

We talked a long time reminiscing old times at the Bank when we worked together. Her last words to me was She loved me and mine to her were she d always been a special friend.

She's at peace now in the presence of Jesus with Shanna. She talked about how hard it naturally had been when Shanna passed as well as Stephen and how good he's been to help her. My thoughts and prayers go to Stephen and all the family.

“ I loved Sonja and I will deeply miss her. We weren't just cousins, we were more like sisters. I enjoyed our long talks on the phone and also carrying her out to get seafood. Now she did love her some crab legs. I would go get her and we would go to Benjamin's. I would sit there with her just as long as she could eat. We were both on walkers and we would laugh about we looked, one trying to help the other. She deeply loved Stephen, Cassidy and also, Alli. To KNOW Sonja was to love. She was truly the type that would give you the shirt off her back. She loved and gave and NEVER expected ANYTHING in return. My heart aches for her loss BUT I know she was always waiting the day when she could see "her Jesus" she longed for that day. Sonja was a Christian! She wanted everyone she knew to accept the Lord as their savior. If you have not made the decision to accept Jesus as your Lord and ask Him to come into your life and save you please consider doing so TODAY. Nothing would make her happier than seeing and being with you in Heaven.

Sonja told me once that Cliff asked her one day if she didn't think she gave a little too much to the church (she was a tither) she said she told Cliff that God had always been so good to her and that she could never out-give God. She said he never mentioned how much she gave to God's work on earth again.

Sonja and I go back to when we were a child living at N. Conway, she and Carol were childhood friends. I still think of her as that little girl. Her parents, Oliver & Billie Mae were so generous and kind to me as a child visiting them out in the country. I saw her probably 10 years ago at one of the Durant parties around New Years. I live in another state but kept up thru FB with each other, she will be missed by many friends and especially her dear family. To be absent from the body is to be in Gods presence. Love you my sweet friend. Marjorie Lewis Curry
