“ I only had the opportunity to meet Stacy briefly through another friend, but in that one hour I saw that she had a vibrant loving nature. She radiated a beautiful kind of energy that couldn't help but to be noticed. My sympathy and heart goes out to the O'Shields family and friends of Stacy. I am truly sorry for your loss, and I pray for strength, love, and peace for your family and friends whom were blessed to have her in their lives.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Life.....so fragile, Loss....so sudden, Heart....so broken,...in the wake of such a loss, we are haunted by things we dont, and may never understand. Yet the solace we seek may not come from answers. So we look for comfort in the belief of love's everlasting connection. May that love lift you and hold you close, and give you peace. ”
