I have very fond memories of your dad. He was funny and laughter was a common element when he was around. As much as he loved golf and enjoyed life, every day now is a Par One, in heaven. He is engulfed in pure joy and unfathomable love in the arms of God, our Father and His Son, Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Rest-in-Peace, Mr. Hart.

I wish I'd had the opportunity to meet your Dad Joanna, but I can tell from our talks through the years that he was a good father, a good man, and lived a good life. I am thankful to him for his service and for bringing you into the world! May he rest in peace and eternal happiness. My deepest sympathies to you and Kay.
