“ We will never forget Steve, his smile was contagious, he gave the best bear hugs, and he loved his family. When a person loves so deeply and so purely as Steve did the impact they leave in our lives is like the Grand Canyon, unforgettable. Steve you will be missed. I pray for God to bless and keep our family as they try to find ways to understand why God needed you to come home so soon.
Love always, your West Virginia family.

“ Steve was like a Son to us as well as a Brother to Vince. We feel very blessed to have been able to enjoy him through his childhood and his visit just a month ago, and the enjoyment of catching up. The thought of us seeing him for the last time never came into our minds. I can still feel his hug, see his smile, and hear him talk of his Love for Rhonda, his children and his family.

The distance and time doesn't change the Love you feel in your heart for someone.

Our Love and Support is sent to all of Steve's family.

There is an empty space in Our Hearts that will never be filled but Steve's Memory will live on.

“ To the Jarvis Family:

The loss of a loved one is always devastating, but especially so, when that one is so very, very, young. Hold tight to cherished memories....Lean on each other for support....And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. Psalm 147:3 promises: "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots."

*My condolences,
SJB.*
