“ Dear Beth: Words cannot express our sorrow at the loss of your beloved father. Bob and I felt so blessed to spend time with him and so happy that he had a chance to meet little Robert. We will never forget your Dad's wonderful sense of humor. Remembering how he told Bob that he was running out of cookies when we were together at Thanksgiving...still makes me chuckle!! He was "grandpa Steve" to little Robert, so kind and generous. His spirit will always be with our family and we will think of him often. God bless. “ To the Family: During this distressing time, I hope that you truly rely on Almighty God because he is near to those who area broken at heart and crushed in spirit.please read Ps. 34:15 Remember too, that God never intended for man to die, rather he desired all those who are righteous to possess the earth and live forever - Ps. 37:29. May you find comfort and be encouraged in knowing that there is going to be a resurrection, according to Acts 24:15. By meditating on these thoughts and keeping them in your heart, may they provide you with strength to cope.###imported-begin###F. Allston###imported-end###

“ At these times it is especially important that we draw close to God in prayer. It is also a time to reflect on the promises that he has given us thru his word the Bible concerning the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope these scriptures will bring you much comfort. - John 11:11-44, John 5:28,29 My prayers are with your family.###imported-begin###Karen Cross###imported-end###

“ Kevin, We were very sorry to hear of your father's passing. May you be comforted in knowing that you and your family are in our daily prayers. Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, For they shall be comforted. Isaiah 60:20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.##imported-begin##Tony & Patti Martin##imported-end##
