“ Condolences to Steve's Family,

*I was very sorry to read of the death in your family, may the tender mercy that God has always shown be with you now so you will know that you are not alone and may the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength and comfort and courage each day. When we lose someone we love the loss seems too great to bear. However Jesus gave his own perfect life as the basis for removing from mankind the curse of imperfection, sickness and death. A comforting thought that I found in the bible says, Soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away...Revelation 21:4
I hope it will give the family comfort too my deepest sympathy to the family.*

“ May God comfort you all in your hours of sorrow. Matthew, 11:28
"Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Thank God that Steve accepted Christ Jesus as his Saviour. He called for a righteous man, Brother Dan Ford, to come to him just before leaving for Charleston. Brother Dan prayed with him and he accepted Jesus. 2 Cor. 5:6 & 8 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; 8:"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Steve is not in this earthly body anymore. He is present with the Lord.
