April 17, 1964 - September 6, 2025

In Loving (and Laughing) Memory of Steven Douglas Ice

Fairview Park, Ohio gave the world one of its finest exports when Steve Ice was born April 17th, 1964, to William and Margaret (McBride) Ice. From the start, he had two great loves: sports and laughter—and he carried both with him until the very end.

A proud student of The Ohio State University and Cleveland State University, he never missed a chance to cheer “Go Bucks!” or root for his beloved Cleveland teams (yes, even when they broke his heart). His fandom was legendary, often accompanied by witty commentary and an uncanny ability to find the humor in every win, loss, or extra inning.

When he wasn't joking around or glued to the game, he was happiest with his toes in the sand and enjoying his life on the beach with his soulmate, Michelle. He always reminded us—through his actions and his words—that life is too short not to laugh, love, and savor the moment. His final message to all of us: “Live long and prosper.” 🙌 On September 6th, 2025, he exited the stage with perfect comedic timing.

He is survived by his loving wife, Michelle Ice, daughter Nicole Ice (Justin Beish), son Beau Ice, and his three grandsons—Tripp Hager, Chase Dugas, and Nathan Grabowski—who will carry on his humor, his loyalty, and maybe even his stubborn Cleveland spirit. Also surviving are his parents William &

An Eternal Toast Celebration will be held in his honor on Sunday, September 21st at 1pm at 7201 Porcher Drive, Myrtle Beach. Raise a glass, share a laugh, and remember him exactly as he lived: with joy, wit, and a love for family, friends, and the beach.

“ I just loved seeing Steve and Michelle . Yes it's hard to say one without saying the other. One of the best couples I ever met and it didn't hurt that they are from Ohio like my husband and I was . Loved sitting around the fire pit with them. You could see the love in his eyes for Michelle and he was so funny all the time even when he wasn't feeling great. He always managed a smile or joke. And loved seeing them out back in the day. Hes truely missed and Michelle you are loved by so many of us so remember we are here and keep people around you cause take it from me ,it really helped being wth family and friends. I love you girl.

“ Steve and Michelle (I can only think of them together) and I met in 2012 I believe, maybe 2013. I rented a monthly ocean front condo for January as it was a great deal and to change everything in my life (except work) for 30 days. Steve and Michelle had "moved in" lol to a larger condo in the same building for 3 months I think. U C, they were moving to Myrtle Beach. We met I think my first night, downstairs in an cosy Adult Area. We were side by side at the most convenient proximity to service and beverages. Lol. That was the beginning of an amazing long term friendship. We laughed and danced, "Red solo Cup" ... locals in realestate, and other. Friends from Canada "snow birds" hi Other Steve, had local and out of town long term buddies, even had a wonderful Magazine star hang with us for a bit.

Ok my memory: this evening Michelle was sitting beside me at the afore mentioned location. Somehow the topic of Rose's came up after a refill or 2. Steve described in the most loving terms, Michelle had an momento of his love on her body. Oh really what is it and where. It was an Beautiful short seemed Rose. As the high token of love had aged. It became a long stem rose. ❤️

We all laughed and called the adult server over. My amazing memory.
