“ Betty and Bill I have sat here reading the guest book for Stuart and thinking about what to write for a little while now. Tears keep coming to my eyes, thinking about how much pain Bill, Preston and you must be in. Each time I start writing, the words just do not sound sympathetic enough. Betty, you were not just a cousin to me, you were my sister and that is how I think about you. Growing up so close to you I know how kind you are, how sensitive you are and how much love you have in your heart. I have thought very much about you the past couple of days, since hearing about Stuart. I think about the unimaginable pain you are feeling and the roller coaster of emotions that you must be going through. I think about Stuart and what a wonderful and happy kid he was. I say kid because I only knew him as a kid. I have not seen him since he was about 12 years old. It also saddens me that I missed out on him growing up. Please, when the time is right, tell me all about him. I have many questions, but now is not the time to ask them. My schedule will not permit me to come to the service tomorrow, but soon I want to schedule to come visit you. Please contact me whenever you need someone to talk to. I love you like a sister Betty,

“ We are thinking and praying for you all. We live so far apart that is all we know to do right now. But God is everywhere and I know they are so many people that would love to be there with the family. We serve the same God that just called Stuart home and we know that he will give you all the strength to get through this. Family and friends will have to leave you at times, but God will never leave you. Just keep putting your faith and trust in him, then oneday we too can go join him in that heavenly place.##imported-begin##Bobby & Darlene Baumgardner & Family##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Stuart when we were little. My parents live on Sherwood Rd. in Bristol, VA across the street from Edna and Bernard. I'll never forget our homemade, slip n slide days! I haven't seen Stuart probably since then, but all I have ever heard was good things from Ms. Edna. I truly hate that you all are having to go through this and our thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you!##imported-begin##Sara Whited Branch##imported-end##

“ Van and I were shocked to read about the car accident that took Stuart too soon from his family. We so enjoyed having Stuart and his crew, in our home the week his son was born, spray foaming our attic..he was so proud and thrilled about the birth of Christopher and his sleeping so well at night..We are so sorry for your loss and his entire family will be in our thoughts and prayers in the coming weeks and months...Sonjia and Van Bell..Pawleys Island###imported-begin##Sonjia & Van Bell###imported-end##

“ Betty and Bill, We are so shocked over Stuart's death. This is every parents' nightmare and I am sick that this has happened to your sweet family. We are all reliving fun moments with the kids as they were growing up. Chapel Creek Villas was a great place for our kids to live. So many people watching out for them, loving them and helping to shape their personalities, strengths, etc. We always felt good when Chad was with Stuart, knowing they were harmless, but always having a great time together. Stuart always looked out for Caroline which we were so grateful for. Please know we think of you constantly and are praying for God to help you with your pain and loss. Chad will do everything he can to be here for the service. Please take care of each other and let your friends and family do what they can to help. Phillip and I are here if we can do anything at all. ##imported-begin##Peggy Cusick##imported-end##

“ Aunt Betty and Uncle Bill We are sorry we cannot be there with the rest of the family. We are praying for you, Vanessa, and baby Christopher. I have been struggling with Stuart's death the last couple of days and I keep coming across the scripture, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Hope you find comfort in this verse, as I have. We love you all. TJ, Beth, and Luke Pike##imported-begin##TJ Pike##imported-end##
