“ Dear Fay, Vera and family, sorry I was unable to attend Miss Sue's funeral yesterday due to health problems myself. My thoughts and prayer are with you all during this time. It is hard having just lost my Mama, but we know they are happy because now they are really together in heaven. They had such a beautiful friendship for so many years and now they can continue on with it along with enjoying the pleasures of being with our Lord Jesus Christ. I enjoyed playing Bingo with them both each week and they really were into it and of course the reward in winning. We will now look forward to joining them in the future.
Love and prayers, Margie Wilson(Lizzie Benton's daughter)

“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Sue Lane. I am truly sorry for the loss of your loved one. I know how painful a time like this can be for you. Still we can look to God's word as a source of true comfort. One comforting Scripture can be found at Isaiah 25:8, which promises us that God will soon swallow up all death and wipe the tears from people's faces. That is definitely something to look forward to in the near future. If you are interested in knowing more about God's purposes for mankind, you can visit the site www. JW. Org.
