“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. In times such as these, I have found it very beneficial to rely on Almighty God. We are told to draw close to him and in doing so we can throw our burdens on him, knowing that he will sustain us - Ps. 55:22. God definitely cares for us and this is proven by the words written at Ps. 34:18, which tells us that He is near to those who are crushed in spirit and broken at heart. The love is also manifest thru our knowledge of his plan to resurrect both those righteous and unrighteous according to Acts 24:15 please read. May you find comfort in knowing that the prospect of seeing your beloved again does exist!##imported-begin##F. Allston##imported-end##
