Susan G. Barnes MYRTLE BEACH | Susan "Sue" G. Barnes, 84, of Island Green in Myrtle Beach, died Thursday, February 14, 2008, at NHC Healthcare Center in Garden City. She was born August 20, 1923, in Westbury / Long Island, NY, to the late Selden and Gladys Bunn. From an early age she excelled in many sports including softball, hockey, bowling and golf. During WWII she aided the war effort as a riveter for Grumman Wildcats. She had been an active member of Trinity Episcopal Church since moving to the beach in 1988, and recently became a member of Timberlake Baptist Church. Sue was the widow of Wallace L. Barnes, who died in 1994 after 49 years of marriage. She is survived by a son, retired marine Lawrence H. Barnes and his wife, Patricia, and by a daughter, Suzanne D. Berry and her husband, Tim, all of New York. She will be greatly missed by her many friends. Goldfinch Beach Chapel will arrange for her ashes to be buried next to those of her husband in Pinelawn Cemetery in Farmingdale, Long Island. A guest book is available at myrtlebeachonline.com.
