“ Paige was my best friend. She always knew what to say and how to say it. I most respected and loved her for her big heart. No matter what happened or how badly someone hurt her, she always got right back up and tried to reach them again. She was a beautiful girl inside and out. She was a great friend that never let anything stop her from being your friend. In our case, I moved 600 miles away, but we still talked and stayed connected. Best friends don't break their bonds because of miles, heartache, or b/c one is in heaven and the other is still on Earth. She will always be with me, and I know when it is my time, I will see her again. My heart aches for her family. I will keep you guys in my prayers. I love you and will always miss you Lauren Paige. You have been my best friend since the fifth grade and no amount of time will ever change that :)###imported-begin##Jennifer Poindexter (Comley)###imported-end##

“ I never really talked to Paige, but I knew who she was. She was the one you always saw walking down the halls at Conway High School, she was the biggest fan at all of the football games, and she was JD's biggest fan. It didnt matter if he was playing on the field or walking down the hall you could tell she really loved him. I could be having a bad day, pass her in the hallway, say hi and her smile would just brighten my day. She left a mark with me. She was always happy and willing to do anything for anyone. My thoughts and prayers have been with the family and they will always be.##imported-begin##Tiffany Edwards##imported-end##

“ You can't decide how your gonna die,or when your gonna die,but you can decide how your gonna live life nowPaige was one of the greatest people we have ever known. When you were down she was always there to bring you back up again. She was on of those people that if you were haing a bad day and saw her in the hallway, she would make your day so much better. Just by her bring her joy to your day. Paige was classafied as perfect. Everyone wished that some how they could be more like her. We all looked up to her so much and wished some of her great personality would rub off on us. She is greatly missed. But she will be in our hearts forever. Remember to live your days to the fullest, because you never know when it will be your time. God bless all##imported-begin##Kaci Warren & Misty Alessi##imported-end##

“ I met Paige around the early part of August of this year, at a Key Club training at Conway. She caught my attention, asking me who I was? and where was I from? Well, Paige was from Conway, and I'm from Carolina Forest, so I introduced myself to her. I didn't know that she was going to touch my life so much over the next 2 months. I cannot express my sympathy for such a devastating loss. Well, I take that back, it is not devastating all the way, because Paige McDowell, is gone with the Lord. Everytime I saw Paige somewhere, she would always ask me how I was doing, and was willing to help me, since this is my first year as a Key Club official. I also learned that she worked at Nye's, and I remember when Paige used to have a smile on her face, when she fixed the Ice Cream. It's just so many wonderful things about her. She was a one in a million type of girl, with a kind heart!! I will never forget Paige, and I pray that God will bless the McDowells at this time of sorrow. Conway High is missing a shining star, that will be in the hearts and minds of many forever....We Love you Paige McDowell....and to the family, hold on to God's unchanging hands!! God Bless!!##imported-begin##Kendall Brown##imported-end##

“ To the family of PAIGE McDOWELL, Paige was a great friend. She was never mad at anyone. She would always speak/ talk to you in the hallways or if she saw you in the store somewhere. She never treated a person wrong. If you ever had trouble with someone you would ask her about it she would just tell you to treat others the way you want to be treated. WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU PAIGE McDOWELL. WE LOVE YOU. WE ALSO WILL SEE YOU IN HEAVEN ONE DAY!!!! IOVE, Beth Cooper##imported-begin##Beth Cooper##imported-end##

“ My condolences go out to Mr. and Mrs. McDowell and J.D. We lost someone very dear to our hearts. Paige loved everybody and could brighten up anybody's day. She always had a smile on her face and was a stranger to no one. Because of Paige and her effect on people she knew, I chose to get saved yesterday. It was the best decision I've made in a long time and I feel so much better. Paige will be greatly missed at CHS but we'll keep her spirit alive. This homecoming is for you babygirl! We love you and we miss you, Paige McDowell!

“ Words are hard to express during such a difficult time. I enjoyed teaching Paige her 9th grade year at CHS. Paige and I enjoyed picking on each other and we usually did that often. I will miss her coming by my classroom to speak even though she did not have my class this year. The family can rejoice in knowing that she is in Heaven and you can all meet her there. You can also cherish her memories and be proud of the fact that she was everyone's friend. That is what is so special about her, she never belonged to just one particular group. “ Keith, Carol, and J. D., I don't have the words to express how sorry I am for your loss or words that will give you any real comfort. My "mother's heart" aches for you. I don't understand why things like this happen. God has His reasons and He is much wiser than we are. Try to remember that Paige is in a much better place now than we are, and that even though she will miss some good things, she will also never experience some of the bad things of this world, like the pain of losing a child. You're in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Becky Causey##imported-end##

“ I will remember Paige as a sweet, kindhearted young lady. She always smiled and everytime I had a bad day, I would get to English and she would always brighten my day. There was never a dull moment with Paige and with that she will truly be missed. I still can't believe it, but I guess God saw how good she was and decided he wanted to bring his angel home. I look at death as freedom. To her family, I would like to send them my heart felt condolences and let them know I know how it feels to lose someone so close on such short notice. She will truly be missed and she will always be remembered here at Conway High and in each individuals heart. School is not the same without her smile and her jokes. But she is now in a better place and no one or nothing can harm her now. I LOVE YOU Paige!!!! Love, Catilia##imported-begin##Catilia Chestnut##imported-end##
