“ It's been 5 years now this week since I went to check on Susanne, I knew her as Sukie, and found her passed away. She was so funny and so nice to me. I would drive her sometimes to Charleston for doctors appointments. I think about her less with the passing years, but always this time of year. I miss our talks. I dont know why I'm writing. Maybe so if anyone ismissing her and sees this, knows they are not alone. I wish I could find a picture of her.

“ We met Sukie many years ago when the Brain Injury Group of the Grand Strand was forming. We stayed in touch over the years via cards, letters and eventually email. She was at times a delight, funny and loved to challenge and educate all who would listen. Sukie loved animals, reading, winning at dominoes and being "right"! She had so much strength to endure her physical challenges and we will miss her wit and charm. May she rest in peace. - Pam and Tony Hare

“ I lost touch with Suki, and that was completely my fault not hers. She made a positive and indelible impression on my life and I'm sad that she's gone.
