“ Sybil was my best friend, sister, "adopted momma", church friend, choir friend. Lunchmate, confidante, lifesaver, angel. I treasure all of the lunches we enjoyed after church for about 3 years or more. We would talk and share our thoughts for hours at the time. Sybil loved everyone.. (no judgment) I loved that about her. I always loved to go visit her at her home. Her neighbors adored her.. especially Thelma. We had the best times in the choir and on Friday mornings doing "church work." She and Sue let me join in with them. I will treasure her memory forever. She touched my life in a beautiful, loving way.

“ Mom, I miss you! Forever! I know you are in a great place and with Daddy. But I didn't have anyone to call at 10:30 this morning. Thanks to you and Daddy for being the best parents in the world.
