“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Wendy, Mary Lynn and Whitney. I can't tell you how sorry Linda and I were to hear about your mothers passing. We have such fond memories of her and always enjoyed being with her and her beautiful daughters. We still laugh when we think of her trying to pick all those crabs for our gourmet dinner of crab cakes, only forgetting to cook them before she started to crack their shells. The thought of her chasing live crabs around the kitchen while getting pinched by their claws still brings a smile after all these years. Our love and devotion to all of you from John, Linda, Johnny and Whitley Hinks.

“ To the Whelchel Family:

*May the memories of a life well-lived help comfort you during this difficult time. And may the strength that God provides, sustain you.
(Psalm 46:1)*

*My condolences,
S. Brown-Acker*
