“ I only met Mrs Bedenbaugh briefly once when she came to visit Tommy. I do know she must have been a wonderful, caring, generous mother because that's how she raised her son! Enjoy your memories Tommy and family. I am sure they are great ones. Gary and I are thinking of all of you.

“ People always remember how you make them feel. I will always remember when I first started dating Tommy 21 years ago, Sylvia immediately made me feel welcome and accepted into her family. She always remembered me for my birthday and Christmas. The spirit of Christmas was truly her favorite. She got just as much joy watching me open my Christmas bag of gifts as I did. I have known Sylvia for 21 years and two Christmas moments will always be in my memory. In my Christmas bag was a little extra. It was a ziplock bag with an eraser, a Penny, a marble, a rubber band, a string a Hershey hug and kiss. With those items was a typed note that said: an eraser so you can make all your mistake's disappear. A Penny so you will never have to say I'm broke. A marble in case someone says you've lost all yours. A rubber band to stretch yourself beyond your limits. A string to tie things together when everything falls apart. A hug and kiss to remind you that someone cares about you. I will never forget how I felt when I read that. My other Christmas moment was when we were in my living room doing a late Christmas in March. I opened up a box from her with an Angel. North Carolina rarely gets snow and especially in March. I remember after opening up the Angel, I looked outside and there were snowflakes coming down. It truly felt magical. Two moments I will never forget how she made me feel.....special. Rest in peace Sylvia. You were truly a great woman and mother in law. You will truly be missed.
