“ Our UMW circle had planned to meet at Conway Manor to socialize with some of the elderly residents. It turned out to be a horrible travel day, extremely cold and torrential-like rain. Most circle members decided to stay home (who could blame them?) but not Sylvia. There she was, dripping wet with a bag of goodies for the seniors! Thinking now about that day, I bet God was watching her and saying " that's my girl!". She always set a strong Christian example. Sylvia was kind and gentle; encouraging and loving. I will miss her so very much... My sympathy and prayers go out to her family and friends. Kimberley Wright

This is Marsha Timbes Sands, Amy Lovell Jenkins sister and Sylvia's. Your kind words and sharing a precious memory of Sylvia means so much to us. She was a special sister with a big heart and a great sense of humor. Our hearts are broken but we know she is in the arms of Jesus, reunited with family and healthy once again. Thank you again for sharing your thoughts and for your prayers.

Barry and Wanda, thank you for being there for Sylvia on so many occasions. She was also very appreciative of everything anyone did for her. She was always thanking us. Just wish we could have done more. Thank you and God bless.

“ Sylvania was a dear friend to many of us from Socastee Library where she often attended classes. A group of the ladies from the library..we call ourselves "the sparkling ladies of Socastee library" - meet for lunch once a month at different area restaurants. There were 11 of us with Sylvania at our recent lunch at Athens Pizza restaurant, Socastee this last Thursday January 12. This is such a terrible shock to us all! Sylvania had a good sense of humor and was loved by us all. Rest in peace dear friend..you will be sadly missed.

Thank you for taking time to share this. I am, Marsha, Sylvania's step-sister. We loved her dearly and yes, she had a great sense of humor. We are heart broken over her tragic death but I am thankful that I know she is at peace and reunited with family and in the arms of Jesus. Your message means so much to me. May God bless you!

Sid, Charles and I thank you for your kind sympathy card. Sorry you missed Sylvania's memorial service. We didn't know there were two Souls Cemeteries either, but have now googled it. Thank you for your love and kindness to Sylvania. Callie & Charles
