“ We are spirits --
That bodies have been lent to us is a kind and benevolent Act of God -
That we might do good things in this life, acquire knowledge,
Know pleasure and serve the Lord.
When these bodies become infirmed and no longer serve the purposes
For which God intended:
He in his benevolence gives us a way of going back to be Spirits -
Death Is That Way!
My friends and I were invited aboard this party of pleasure
Which is to last forever!
So why then do we grieve when they have gone on before us -
For we know where they have gone and we are sure to follow!
Benjamin Franklin
