“ It's so hard to think of such a young life taken who was truly loved by all. I can not even begin to imagine what her children are going through. Taisia was such such a sweet beautiful soul who was liked and loved by so many. My heart truly goes out to her children, family, and extended family. She will definitely be missed by so many. But God has a plan for her and he needed her by his side more than earth. Every single person that this has impacted is in my thoughts and prayers. May God wrap his arms around you all and help you now and in the many hard days to face. Rest easy sweet girl.

“ I have an unconditional love for you that taught me so much. To me, you hung the moon & did no wrong. Even when you admitted fault, I let you know that mistakes are made to teach us lessons, and you always grew stronger. We had such a strong bond and could understand each other on a level that no one else did. We both walked to the beat of our own drum but could always drum together. I so thankful to have had the years that I did with you and I'm blessed we shared the bond we did. I have thought in the past that I wanted to go first but the Lord knew best. I know you want me to take care of everyone here until we meet again. Me and you have always been the caretakers and could handle things when no one else could. I'll take care of everyone for you now. I promise to tell the boys all of the amazing stories from our childhood. I'll make sure they always how much you loved them and how proud you were of them. I wish I could hear you laugh just one more time. I loved making you laugh. I could be as goofy and silly as I really am and you would always laugh at me. I wish we could live side by side like our granny's did and watch our children and grandchildren grow up together. I'm so glad that we talked about our love for the Lord & how we have both felt the Holy Spirit. I'm so glad we both knew that no matter what we had done in this life, that we have a forgiving father that will take us back time and time again. The fact that I know you are with granny, pa, & Pappy gives me comfort. I'm sad I have to wait to see you again. You did not die in vain. I will make sure that your memory lives as long as I am left here on earth. I love you, I miss you, I need you, & I'll keep you. (We say this every time you leave Tennessee. I never thought I would say it when you left the earth. Catch ya on the flip side. I love you
