“ To all of the Holt family, love and prayers from the Vaught family. My mother, Elsie Collins Vaught, was cousin/friend to Margie, and thinks so highly of your sweet family. I was out of the country and have just learned of your father's passing. How wonderful to know he and Margie are both resting in God's arms, at peace.

“ I am proud and humbled to have known this honorable gentle man with his loving heart and lifetime narrative. I became Mr. Holt's VA Nurse in May, 2018. His infectious personality, dry wit, and perpetual smile melted my heart from day #1. Over the months I was Blessed to meet many of Mr. Holt's family, friends, and acquaintances. Talmage would light up the room with stories of family, friends, Military Service and the many years he and his wife Margie shared raising their 3 beloved sons. He was a man of faith, dedication, hard work and family. He celebrated his 95th Birthday at home. Cars lined the drive, filled the yard, and parked up and down the hwy as guests arrived in droves to honor him. He may never have been more in his element. His smile was as big as the huge cake! I am grateful to have played a small part in Mr. Holt's life. We joked, laughed, prayed and even wept together at times. He reminded me to honor the past, be grateful for the present, and accept the future with the Lord's Will. Thank you Talmadge. Sail on.
