“ My deepest sympathy for the Pierce's on the loss of your only daughter. I remember having classes with Tara and Leveta at Coastal Carolina. Good times prevailed whenever we worked together. She was passionate about loving, protecting, and supporting animals (including a stray Guinea Pig), her friends (especially Shay Hucks), and her family. Tara will be greatly missed.

“ Tara was one of the best friends a person could possibly ask for. She was once my roommate, condo co-owner, and even my birthing coach turned stunned C-section observer. She was the biggest laugh in the room and the biggest heart as her big smile attests. Her love of dogs is well known far and wide. She was the sun and moon to her mother and her daughter. We will gather for the celebration to cry, laugh and miss the heck out of our friend, momma, daughter, co-worker or whatever role she served for so many. Rest in peace my dear friend, who left us all too soon.

“ There are no adequate words. Tara was full of energy and smiles that would light up a room. Whenever sweet Madeline was at PVE, Tara was the first to volunteer and she would make Field Day and the Fun Run even more fun. She was the parent you always wanted to have as your helper, but she was much more. A friend and family and a lot of special memories tucked away in forever places in my heart. Our prayers for comfort and strength for the days ahead and our love for Madeline, Leveta and Gary, and all the family and friends. May God wrap His arms around each of you.

“ I was honored to have been Tara's high school French teacher. Madeline, Levita, and Mr. Pierce, may you find comfort in the wonderful memories of Tara as you currently struggle with the heartbreak. Tara's infectious smile, genuine interest in the well-being of others, intelligence, and bubbly personality will be remembered fondly by those of us who had the privilege of knowing her.

I met Tara at BCBS and she welcomed me and guided me thru the process there. Tara was always a ray of sunshine, she loved her family and her daughter Madeline. We talked about her brothers and travels. I met her family on several occasions and knew why she was so proud of them. I often think of her fondly and enjoy what she shared on Facebook. I am still in shock of her passing and gave my condolences to her family. Tara was a shining star to everyone who knew her.
