

Tarlie Bryan

March 13, 1946 - December 5, 2023

In Loving Memory of Clara Gertrude Wimbish David Bryan

Affectionately known as Tarlie, Clara Gertrude Wimbish David Bryan, the cherished daughter of the late Ernest Roland David and Mary Wimbish David, peacefully passed away on December 5, 2023 with her loving husband of 55 years, Frank Jay Bryan by her side. Born on March 13, 1946, in Richland County, Tarlie's presence left an indelible mark on the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her. She is preceded in death by her beloved sister, Mary Kay David Beardmore Strack.

Tarlie served as an elementary school teacher in the Grand Strand for many years. A proud graduate of Winthrop University, she furthered her passion for learning by earning her Master's in Education from the University of South Carolina. Tarlie's commitment to excellence made her one of the first South Carolina teachers to achieve National Teaching Certification.

In addition to her love for education and gardening, Tarlie took great joy in serving her family, friends, students, and church community. She was a dedicated volunteer for the Good News Bible Club. She served as the Children's Director for Bible Study Fellowship, impacting the lives of many with her kindness and devotion.

Tarlie is survived by her husband of 55 years, Frank Jay Bryan, her brother Roland David (Mary) and children Frank Jay Bryan, Jr. (Tamie), David Bryan (Gayle), Jill McKinney (Michael), and Bo Bryan. She was a devoted grandmother to Trey Bryan, Jamie Bryan, Austin Bryan, Abbie Bryan Gambill, Clem Corten, Beau Bryan, Henry Bryan, and Josh Corten, as well as her six great- grandchildren.

A memorial service to celebrate Tarlie's life will be held on December 16, 2023, at First Baptist Church of Murrells Inlet. The family will receive guests at 10 am, and the service will begin at 11am
