“ Its 2021 and it seems just like Yesterday When You Left. I lost Mt Best Friend and Ive never gotten iver Your departure. Never Will. I went homeless not ling afterwards for over 2 years. I seen what You had told me before You left. I could not Trust my 2 Brothers and Theyd find a way to screw me over in due Time. The next Time I meet them will be When They bury me beside My Dearest Friend. I. Requested thar They Not be contacted When I pass. No regrets No Sorrows. They turnt their backs on Me and I Froze. I was Hot and Hungry Lost and Lonely. But Teresa was with Me The entire Time watching over Me. I'm stronger now Have a nea home in Tnn Mnts. Soon I Will be leaving to join Her and. Then I can find Peace and Sleep in Jesus Knowing I'm finally at Rest. I miss No one But My Son Travis His Mom and Steven Ray. May God have Mercy on This World. Things to come will Shock This World and Only The Strong will Survive. I say My farewells and Pray for All. It's All About Forgiveness. Even if No One Loves Me again. May The Lord be with All. For His Mercy is Great and Everlasting. Only A Few Shall Be with The Lord. Pray The 1st Judgement Calls You 1st least Ones To be Forgotten. AJ. Im ar Peace with Dying.

“ I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. During these times it is especially important to draw close to God in prayer, for the Bible promises that ?he himself will sustain you.?- Psalm 55:22. It is also a time to reflect on the promises that he has given us thru his word the Bible concerning the resurrection hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29, Acts 24: 15 and Revelation 21:3,4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##
