“ *Dear Anderson family,
Please accept my deep regrets for your loss. Death is our greatest enemy and always brings pain and grief which I felt when I lost my whole family to it but I found hope and comfort in what Gods word the Bible says at John 11:11 and Mark 5:39 that they'er just asleep and Jesus states at John 5:28,29 that I'll see them again and this is what helps me get through each day because I miss them so much. I do hope that by your reading these scriptures in your Bible that you'll find hope and comfort also because this is my purpose in sharing this with you for no doubt you miss your loved one also. Please know that I do share your grief and truly hope this has helped in some way. Sincerely , Gloria Mosley*

“ To the Anderson Family:

Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support....And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

*My condolences,
SJB.*

“ I can't begin to tell you the emptiness I feel in my heart. Terry was not merely my best friend but as the two of us called each other, we were "sisters". She was truly a role model for us all and a light in our lives! She lived to help others and she didn't just pray for them she gave herself to help in anyway she could. She has lived in pain for too long. Even then, she always greeted with a smile and while you were there she made you laugh. Children would immediately embrace her because her love for them was so apparent. To tell you she will be missed is a understatement. She will live on though in our thoughts and heart. She truly left her mark on us all. Her last thoughts were of trying to make sure we all had a Happy Thanksgiving. I pray that in the days that come that you will be comforted by the knowledge that she is truly still with us. Not of her earthly body but of her eternal body with CHRIST. I hope that that will give you some peace. I love you all and hope you will call on me if you need to....

*My heart is saddened but I get comfort in knowing that she is well and happy where she is in Heaven.
She was not my sister-in-law she was my SISTER and I loved her very much and always will.
My heart will always be with the family and I love all of them.
Love,
Robin S. Long*
