“ Dear Diane and Hal, I just read in the Times of Thelma's death. How she and my mother, Libby Nelson, enjoyed each other! Now they are both gone from our daily lives, but not from our hearts. Do you remember when they came into Riversine Terrace giggling holding on to each other and told whoever was in the lounge that they had just come from The Rusty Nail? You have our Sympathy. It's hard to lose a mother. Love, Sharon##imported-begin##Sharon Erickson##imported-end##

“ To: Linda,Diane,Lola,and your families; Mary and I wish to express our sincere condolences to you. Thelma and Chet were a key couple in the Hendrum community and served their Corner Cafe clientele very well. Their parenting skills continue to be exhibited in three charming and successful daughters. I have vivid memory of Thelma behind the counter reaching for penny candies at school lunch break or of she and Chet fixing me a burger, fries, and malted milk before home basketball games while Linda and Diane prepped for their cheerleading duties. Thelma was a beautiful and strong woman. Our fond memories of her person live on. With love and respect, Jim###imported-begin##Jim McAndrew, Jr.###imported-end##

“ May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today. At this time of sorrow may these truths sustain you.....your loved one will always be as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me-Psalms 3:5.###imported-begin##Magallon Family###imported-end##

“ I was saddened and shocked to hear about Velma's passing. I knew her through her jobs at the sewing and quilting shops; we became quilting friends. I just spoke to her recently at Accent Sewing. She always had time to chat and was quick to share her knowledge of sewing. She talked fabric and notions right out of the store! She gave me much encouragement and I was ready to jump right into a project after talking to her. She will be missed. What a sweet wife and mother you had. She will not be forgotten. My kindest regards.
