“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I was one of Mr. Yaussys nurses at the veterans hospital. I worked night shift which often offers us more time to REALLY talk to and spend time with our residents...and Theron and I had many long conversations...and laughs together. His love of The Lord and for his family was always evident..and made me smile. He often spoke of times shared..of growing up and his time in the air force and travels..times with his family...even of the apples that his family raised "on the farm" when he was growing up.He spoke of the beauty that so many don't see..of working with his hands..and times with his "grands" . I laughingly teased him about loving those "quiet"times with them....and he laughed and said with that sweet smile of his..."well I don't know exactly how quiet they are"..and we both laughed. He had a bird house in the window of his room that he made,..and I snuck little feather birds into his room and placed them in and on it one night. When he saw them the next morning he smiled and smiled..but told me in his sternest voice that I would have to clean up after them :) He always called each of us by name when we entered his room, always made us feel special, thanked us for our care..and made us laugh..oh so many times. He taught me to like baseball.."Go Braves" his favorite team... There were times I wondered who was caring for who. He touched so many hearts....it broke mine when he left us. I feel honored To have known and cared for Mr. Yaussy....and to have called him my friend..I will miss him..but never forget him... My heart, prayers and condolences go out to you in your time of loss. I hope that the many memories you shared will bring you comfort....and I hope to one day see my friend again....
