“ Dear Bev and Al, I was searching for you and Thom on FaceBook and found that Thom had passed away last year. I'm so very sorry to hear that news. Wish we had not lost contact. I just hope you get this message and know my heart goes out to you two. Bev especially because I know how close you and Thom were. I'm sure he's with you in all of the great memories you all created together. Love, Joan Holz###imported-begin##Joan Holz###imported-end##

“ Beverly and family, I just learned of the passing of your brother. I am so sorry to hear this news from last September. Thom and Michael Moore and I were part of a group of friends that lived in Ocean City, Maryland during the summer of 1980. We had a remarkable time with him and I have never forgotten how he helped me find work when I had lost my job. We reconnected about 10 years ago and remained in touch until 2006. A new nostalgia group has been launched on Facebook called Ocean City Summers (1979 - 1981). It mentions Thom in the history discussions and also features photos of him in 1980 and a more recent one too. I am sorry for your loss and please except my condolences. Thom will always be a special part of our history and I will never forget what a kind and funny and helpful man he was to me when we all were young.###imported-begin##Bill Horten###imported-end##

“ *Bev, Although we all realized this day was coming too soon, I want to personally thank you for giving Thomas (and his alter, "Drew") so many happy moments, so much laughter, and a sense of hope and purpose. Thank you for sharing him with me!! My time with him was always interesting, and you were the center of his world. Thomas was a unique individual who is already greatly missed. I hope your grief eases with time, and is replaced with fond memories. Please know you are in my thoughts and in my heart. Sincerely,
