“ Tommy Iannone was one of the nicest guys I have ever met. I am lucky to have met him. Although he bruised me up pretty good in football practice. A tough , gentle giant.###imported-begin##Thomas Moran###imported-end##

“ Tom was my neighbor during High School and college in West Islip. His mom drove us to school, then Tom got his license and a car and drove - like a wild man. I remember laughing when he said he would start on our top-ranked football team as a junior who had never played organized football before. But he worked hard, and was one of the best on perhaps the strongest defense in LI football in '82. I'll also remember Tom as the quiet, big guy with a huge heart. He even gave my brother his nickname "Toddles", which we still use. Even though I haven't seen you in probably 15 years, you'll be missed Tom. Peace be with your family, Mark##imported-begin##Mark Johnson##imported-end##
