February 24, 1933 - May 5, 2025

Conway..... Thomas L. Hucks, age 92, went home on Monday, May 5, 2025.

Tom was born in Conway, a son of the late Archie Sanders and Julia Marie Hucks. He was a Navy Man, stationed in San Diego and Long Beach, California. Tom served on the U.S.S. Prior to retirement, Tom was employed by Reynolds Metal Company in Torrance, California where he made many friends. After retirement, Tom moved back to Conway, SC, where he reunited with a very large part of his family. Tom loved people and listening to country music. He liked to be outside piddling in the yard. He was good with his hands, building and remodeling his home. Tom was predeceased by his wife, Darlene G. Hucks, brothers, Windell Sanders and Gene Sanders, and son-in-law, James Wood.

Surviving are: three daughters, Sharon M. Wood, Teri L. Walker (Tommy) and Patricia Hucks Hadley; three grandchildren, Ashley Youngman (Scott), Misty Rae Hucks, and Jessica Zachary (Brandon); five great grandchildren, Randy Higham, Rylan Youngman, Marleigh Youngman, Peyton Wydrzynski, and Presley Wydrzynski; one sister, Rhonda Butler; and five brothers, Herman Sanders, Delano Sanders, Jimmy Sanders, Paul Sanders, and Larry Sanders.

“ I will always remember how lovely Tom and Darlene were to my Grandma. She loved them so much and they loved her. So grateful to have such sweet people be part of our family. Tom was dearly loved by his daughters and grand children. I know this is a hard time for everyone but you all know he is together with Mom/Grandma now - and how happy he must be!
