“ Dear Duci, Words could not express the shock & sadness felt when I received the message that Tom had passed away. My memories of him are many. I was always a fixture at your North Brunswick home. Tom would be sitting at the kitchen table reading a newspaper, watching TV or directing cooking as I walked in the door. Tom would come out with his dry humor jokes that made me giggle. When you moved to South Carolina I was always invited by you to come to visit. When I did visit I had such a wonderful time that I hated to leave. Tom called us the Bobsey Twins because we did everything together and enjoyed each other's company day & night. I remembered how he even fell asleep in the living room chair, waiting for us to go out to dinner. I am truly going to savor my memories of the time I had visiting the both of you. Love, Maria###imported-begin###Maria Bruno###imported-end##

“ My husband and I send our sincere condolences to all of you during this time. When I heard the sad news many great memories came mind. I'll always remember Mr. P. was the dad ?in the street?. He taught every kid on our street how to throw, catch, and hit the ball. His larger than life laugh could be heard in every home and encouraged us to get outside and play. And the sleigh riding trips to Buccleuch Park, well they were always a thrilling adventure. Mr. P. Thanks for the fun. “ Dottie, I spoke with Amie today and she told me about your father-in-law's death. To you and your entire family I sincerely offer my condolences, thoughts and prayers. You have had a rough time, but don't give up!!! Amie also told me your Dad isn't doing any better. I do pray that whatever is best for him be God's will! I don't want to think of him suffering. Just know I do care and that you are always on my mind! Your friend, Joe Jarrett##imported-begin##Joe Jarrett##imported-end##
