“ Dear Debra, Tom & Patty, Ruth & Hobert & all of the family, I am extremely saddened to learn of the tragic loss that your family has borne. My heart aches for all of you. No doubt the depths of your pain are immeasurable. You may never come to know why Lee was taken so young and so tragically, but I trust that healing will come and that you are continuously comforted by your many happy memories of him. Rejoice in knowing that Lee had an exuberant life and shared a wonderful relationship and great love for you Debra, and all of his family and friends. That is indeed a blessing to cherish. I regret that I could not be with you all during this time, but please know that you all have been constantly in my heart and in my prayers.
