“Mr. Tom Viles was a quiet, humble, respectful, good, Christian man. My dad got sick when I was almost 14, and passed when I was 19. He and Bernard always helped me out with our vehicles and tractor during those years. I was thankful that he allowed us to keep a credit tab and we honored that by keeping him paid. Our area was a better place because of Tom Viles and Bernard Chestnut. They're back together again in heaven, along with Mr. Bill Stevens, who barbered beside them for many years.
