“ I had just found out now about Laine's passing. I can not believe it . We would go months without speaking and I thought it weird I could not get ahold of her. She was a one of a kind friend to me. She traveled up to Ithaca in 2010 to be at my wedding. I could not get her to wear a dress, but she came. We had a great fire the night before the wedding. She was so beautiful. My heart goes out to you all. I am so sorry. I miss her and will always love her.

“ I just heard the news about sweet Laine. I am a former wildlife classmate of hers, I remember Laine always had a huge heart for animals...we always talked about how much joy they brought in our lives and how she touched us in so many ways. There wasn't a job or task that was too hard for her, she always jump right in and helped. Laine you will be greatly missed. I pray God wraps his loving arms around her family and friends she left behind during this time of grief.

“ In this, your time of loss and pain, there are no words or actions that will make this walk any easier. I can't even begin to imagine the depth of your grief. I pray that in the tempest of this storm you will feel the love of God as he carries you and the prayers of friends as they surround and lift you. Even when we have no words and don't know what to say God hears your hearts cry out with the need for strength and peace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. Romans 5:12 says, "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
