“ Dear Mary, Justin and Randall, My sincere condolences on your loss. I remember when the Lea family moved to Prince Frederick back in the early 60's. We did not get too many newcomers to the county back then, much less Prince Frederick. Tim and I were in the same classes at elementary school, were acolytes at St. Paul's. I even remember a time I stayed over at the Lea house and we stayed up late to watch "Psycho". that was a first for me About 2 years ago I was walking around my grandmother's old home in Prince Frederick it's now the House of Frames. Tim must have seen me while driving by and he stopped. We talked for about an hour and it was great conversation - to reminisce about growing up in Prince Frederick and all the changes. I enjoyed that conversation and remember it well.##imported-begin##Gary O'Neill##imported-end##

“ I became part of the family 2 years ago, but just recently got the opportunity to meet Mare & Tim this past July. We had traveled to Myrtle Beach for vacation. From the first night to the last night we were always around them. They came to the beach, out to lunch, out to dinner, shopping & even over to our condo just to relax. My dad & Therese had told me about Tim & his fight with cancer so when I actually met him it was nothing like I expected. He was so happy, talkative, laughing, smiling, joking..I gained so much appreciation for life because of him in that short week. I heard of what he had been going through, what he was coming from & for once in my life everything to me that seemed overwhelming & stressful became insignificant. I am still promised life, Tim was fighting for his, I was healthy, Tim wanted to be & all the while his spirits and attitude was way better than mine. By the end of the week Tim had touched my heart without even knowing. And when I said goodbye to him after dinner our last night down there, he let me know he was happy to have me as part of the family , I never imagined it'd be my last, but I was blessed to be one that he had some of his last memories with. After your long fight & all the pain you had to endure, you're home where you know no pain & have finally have new strength & health. You'll be loved & missed dearly Uncle Tim; sweet pea :o Love you Aunt Mare...##imported-begin##Rachel Teaford##imported-end##
