“ I can remember when we was really young and I came over aunt Sue's and your room was in the attic, man you had it done up always nice and You were like an idle to me growing up, pretty always hair done makeup and dressed and ready to go. You and grandma Dolly went out to what used to be the old Blue grass 😊 but then there was the time you moved away and began your family not always staying in touch but enough I knew you were OK. I remember when I lived on wager an y'all stayed a couple weeks and I enjoyed that. I have more memories of us that I'll keep close in my heart I miss you so much and this feels like a dream but I know your suffering is over and that you have so many loved ones who were there to show you the way 💜 your mom, my mom, aunts, uncles.. I love you always
