“ Sue, My heart goes out to you and your family. I know how hard it is to lose one of our babies. She is Gods child and is now in heaven. No more pain, no sorrow. She would not want you to weep because of her passing but rejoice and bring others to know Him, for now she is praising our Savior. Until we meet in heaven. Keep your faith in Him and keep trusting in Him. So much love to you, Lydia

“ I'll try to find the right words, which is difficult for me as a non native speaker. Tina was a real freind for me, although I only know her via FB. The distance in th real world was to much to visit. But since I met her, I was happy to know her. Tina was a source of inspiration. With her way of life she gives people courage to live and to bear a lot of things. She showed us, how strong we can be..
I feel for the family and wish them all the strength in the world and support to the grief to overcome.
Tina has always tried to make us laugh and make us happy. You definitely do not want that your now ceases. Let us think of Tina and continue to live. She will always be in our hearts and thus she will not be forgotten. The world has become a little richer because of her and it also remains.

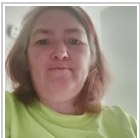

Sending hugs and kisses from Germany to Charles and the family

“ We'll love you always. I never thought of you as just my sister-n-law, but as an actual sister. Your a beautiful soul and I'm glad that you and Charles found each other. Yall are soul mates and always will be. You made him be the man he was suppose to be. You mean so much to so many people that your spirit will live on forever. We love you.

Crystal Landreth - September 26, 2014 at 10:32 PM

“ Tina was an inspiration to many. She gave those of us the courage to carry on. She thought more about you and was always filled with so much love for everyone. To her family you have my sympathies and love. It was an honor to know such an inspiring woman.

“ My heart goes out to the family and friends of Tina Ann Tunstall. She touched the hearts of so many with her strength, courage, determination and her will to live. She was, and will continue to be, loved by all lucky enough to have crossed paths with her. Although Tina is no longer with us in this life, her spirit and the life lessons learned from her will live on forever.

To Charles Tunstall, Tina's husband, grieve in your own way and in your own time and don't be afraid to be happy again. You have been on a long and painful journey but with that also comes the joy of your memories. Above all else, Tina wants you to be happy!

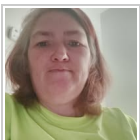

Where a beautiful soul has travelled beautiful memories remain forever.

With love and my deepest sympathy,

Charmaine Wright

Rest in peace my Dearest Hunny Bunny!

“ Tina, thinking of you brings a smile to my face and peace in my heart. There will be no tears. You and I shared such a wonderful destiny filled with love, laughter and unwavering friendship. My world and the world of the many people we touched, together, is a better one, because of you. We will carry on your legacy.

Charles, Tina's passing does not take away the friendship we found during her journey. I am here for you, as always.

Love always,

Dee
