“ My brief encounter with Todd and Reese was during a time in their lives that would be life changing, the birth of Haven. He was so excited and happy and talked about hunting and teaching Haven all about it. The glow in a new parents eyes gleams nothing but love and admiration for their miracle that just landed in their arms. Reese and Todd were a team, and while Todd may be high above shining down on Reese and Haven, he will forever be on their team. A guardian Angel that will guide them and support them when they need it most. Sending prayers for strength during this incredibly difficult time. Sincerely, Melissa
