“ Tom is one in a million! I am so blessed to have known him. My best friend Tina’s husband whom loved me like a best friend as well, took me in when I needed help, gave me many moments of laughter, inside jokes, and tons of pranks!! We shared many morning hours on the front porch...Tom with his coffee and me with my soda just talking about anything & everything. Tom loved with his heart and if you were lucky to be one of those people, you knew it! So this just so long for now, my friend. No doubt you’re already up there antagonizing the angels. Until we meet again.
