“ I just saw Lynn's orbit. just now so this is late, but just wanted to give my condolences to his family. I lived about a quarter mile from Lynn when I lived in Finklea back in the early 60's. His mother was my 3rd grade school teacher and his dad was a farmer. I remember riding my bike to his house on weekends and he'd let me ride his pony and we'd play baseball and stuff. After we moved in '65 I never saw him again. I remember him as a good kid and I'm sure was a good man. I'm very sorry to read of his passing.

“ Very sorry to hear. Lynn was always very kind to me. When traveling away from home, he would always call to check on me and ask if there was anything he could do for me or my family while I was away. The first time I met him, he thought i was a "spy" and trying to overhear company secrets! I was a new guy and he didn't realize I worked for the same company. We laughed about this many times. He worked on opposite sides with my father, Ray Duncan, for many years. Daddy always spoke very highly of him. Lynn will be greatly missed! Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family.
