“ I met Toni at Montgomery PA . She was the most honest ,forthright, and fair person I have known. I consider her a mentor and friend. Whenever we talked or saw each other she always had a kind word or compliment for the way I was taking care of my Norfolk. Rightly so Fair Maiden. We bred her and when it was time for delivery she went to Toni and Carroll's home. Toni was such a blessing, I am honored to have known her . Carroll I am so sorry for your loss, you had a wonderful wife who was loved and will be missed by many.

“ I am so very sad hearing this news. Toni enriched so many lives through her wonderful Norfolks so lovingly bred and raised. And her caring spirit and wisdom guided so many of us to raise her nice pups.

She will live on for us in our two beautiful Norfolks Daisy 10 and Wally 5.

Carroll, you have our deepest sympathy. Rest in peace Toni

“ Toni's wonderful Norfolk Terriers enriched so many lives, including mine. Our wonderful Hannah (Rightly So Rock-A-Bye) healed our hearts after the loss of Ginger, our first Rightly So Norfolk. Toni's warmth and wisdom were a gift to all who knew her. Our deepest sympathy to Carroll.
