“ Well, it's been over a month now and I still find it difficult to believe that Tony is gone. I've been holding back on writing this, waiting for the time to come when it wouldn't hurt to do so. Apparently, that won't be any time soon, so... Tony was the best friend that anybody could ever have and I was blessed to have been his friend for so many years. Tony was always there for me, ready to help in any way that he could. He wasn't just like that for me; he would help ANYBODY and expect nothing in return. I have always believed that you can tell the character of a man by the way that children and dogs react to that man. Well, ask any kid that knew Tony, they all loved him. From nieces and nephews to the children of friends and neighbors, Tony was definitely a favorite. I guess he always had a little bit of kid in him and, along with him warm heart, they were drawn to that. As for dogs - there was never one that didn't wag it's tail upon sight of Tony. He was a lover of all animals and they loved him. When we were young, we used to love to go out when ever and where ever. We were always looking for something to do and we always found a good time. However, as the years went by and he found Sandy, Tony began to enjoy the little things in life. Family, friends, dogs, cats, squirrells, etc. I had thousands of hours of entertainment just sitting on the porch or around a fire, watching the Mascho show. We knew how to make each other laugh, and spent a lot of time doing just that. Some may find that trivial, I think it is a highlight of my life. I couldn't have had a better friend. Thank you so much Tony for being there and for just being you. I'll always be there for your beloved Sandy and the old man, you can believe that. I look forward to the day I see you again, my friend.##imported-begin##Mike Bianchi##imported-end##

“ With Deepest Sympathy, Uncle Tony was a very good man and loved everybody he met. He treated everybody like family and loved Aunt Sandy with all his heart. One thing I will miss about him is that he always made me laugh and that he was always there for me when I needed something. He was the best uncle ever and will definitely be missed and never forgotten. We love you! Angelena, Jojo, and Larry###imported-begin##Angelena Richards###imported-end##

“ Two words... "Chinese Shrimp" My Uncle Tony was one of the funniest, most laid back man that anybody could ever meet. His love for my Aunt Sandy, all animals, his family and friends was definitely one of a kind. It breaks my heart to know that he is no longer physically here with us in this world. I could not have asked for a better Uncle, or a better husband for my Aunt Sandy. He is, and always will be sorely missed!###imported-begin##AC CARTER###imported-end##

“ To those who knew Tony, You all know what I mean when I say Tony knew how to live. He cherished the little things in life, like BBQs, a good old movie, and spending time with friends and family. I remember one time, when Tony was driving home from work, he saw a turtle and for some unknown reason he brought it home. He thought I needed a pet, you all know how many pets they already had. He made my day, once again. We decided later to return it back to the wild, but this memory is but one of the many I recall. These days, people often think of only themselves, but he would do anything for anyone and tried his best to make people happy. He made every day count and remains an inspiration to how I look at life. Don't underestimate the little things in life and don't let him leaving us stop you from living your life. He wouldn't wish that on his enemies, let alone all of you he loved. His life was lived to the fullest, no matter how short it was. Tony, you may not have known how much you have changed our lives, but you made each of us better people for knowing you. Until we meet again my friend and cousin, I'll say see you later. Sandy, Uncle Pudgy, I love you both, and I wish I could've been there. Keep in touch and let me know if there is anything you need.##imported-begin##Ashley M Mascho##imported-end##

“ To my darling husband, We went through alot to finally find each other and be able to share the love we have. You were and still are the most amazing man I have ever met; you were my rock, my motivation and my salvation. I will never remember you any other way than the Tony who loved life and lived it to the fullest. Never a dull moment and never without a smile. You found joy and good in all living creatures and every situation, no matter how dire. My memories are etched into my heart and will remain with me forever, until we see each other again. You are missed so deeply...my heart truly aches for you. Bless you baby...I know your mom is taking care of you now. I love you with ALL my heart and I always will.
